

ART DECO

The International Evolution of Art Deco Architecture

Conférence de Sandra Cohen-Rose

Northern Deco - Art Deco Architecture in Montreal

The Société d'Histoire de Sainte-Marguerite-du-Lac-Masson et d'Estérel and Art Deco Montréal present

THE INTERNATIONAL EVOLUTION OF ART DECO ARCHITECTURE

With speaker Sandra Cohen-Rose,
President and Founder of Art Déco Montréal

Saturday, May 12th, 2018, 10-11:00AM
Sainte - Marguerite - du - Lac - Masson City Hall
88 Chemin Masson, Sainte - Marguerite
FREE ENTRY

Sandra Cohen-Rose, a graduate of the University of British Columbia, is the author of the first book on Canadian Art Deco, Northern Deco - Art Deco Architecture in Montreal.

She is the founding president of Art Déco Montréal, a non-profit, bilingual society. In 2009 Art Déco Montréal hosted the highly-acclaimed 10th World Congress on Art Deco. She has lectured on Art Deco in as far a field cities as Cape Town, New York, Vancouver and Los Angeles. In appreciation of her presentations to the Art Deco Society of New York she was awarded a Life Membership.

Recently, she contributed a chapter to the soon to be published book, "Companion to Art Deco, Ashgate Research," edited by Bridget Elliott and Michael Windover The Evolution and Role of Art Deco Societies and World Congresses in the Preservation and Popularization of Art Deco.

